INVITATION

AUGUST 7-13 2010
LARVIK - NORWAY

Larvik Yachtclub cordially invites the International H-Boat class to the World Championship 2010 as well as the Open Norwegian Championship that takes place on the same waters near Larvik on the weekend just before the opening of the World Championship. Larvik is a popular port of entry to Norway with quick ferry connections operated by Colorline from Hirtshals in Denmark, Strømstad in Sweden and Kiel in Germany (via Oslo). Special discount tickets for participants will be available !! Larvik also has frequent flight connections via nearby Torp airport to Copenhagen and Amsterdam. Beyond spectacular sailing in one of Scandinavia's best regatta venues protected by our famous archipelago, we can offer sightseeing for crew and family: Viking culture at Kaupang and Mølen, Tordenskjold's famous naval base from the era of sailing ships in Stavern, the homes of the naval architect Colin Archer and the explorer Thor Heyerdahl, a relaxing tour through the locks in the Telemark Canal waterway or salmon fishing in nearby Numedalslågen river.

We will offer camping on our private campgrounds, as well as more luxurious accommodation in the brand new Farris Bad spa-hotel. We plan an extensive social program with meals and drinks offered at our Yacht Club.
